Wednesday 20th March

6.00pm Registration. 6.30pm - 9.30pm Thinkuknow course.

Poynton Civic Hall, off Park Lane, SK12 1RB. To book a place phone 01625 872238

What is it?

Thinkuknow is the education programme from CEOP (Child Exploitation and Online Protection command), a UK organisation which protects children both online and offline.

This course is run by a CEOP trained Ambassador and provides an overview of the CEOP Command, the Thinkuknow education programme, new technologies and how children and young people use them, the main risks associated with these online environments, and how the Thinkuknow education resources respond to these risks.

The Thinkuknow Introduction course covers:

- Introduction to CEOP and reporting
- Children and Young People Online
- Online sexual abuse
- Nude selfies: What professionals need to know
- The Thinkuknow resources

Who is it for?

Thinkuknow is for those who work directly with children and young people including: teachers, youth leaders and youth workers, police officers, etc.

Criteria: Present photographic ID to the Ambassador running the training for verification purposes. Acceptable forms of photographic ID are a passport, driver's licence or work ID.

All delegates are to provide a letter from their employer/organisation on headed paper, signed by a manager stating:

- The delegate's role and length of employment period/association with the organisation they are representing
- The relevance of the training to the delegate's role
- How the delegate intends to apply the knowledge gained
- Confirmation that the organisation has undertaken necessary risk assessment that the delegate is suitable to work with children and young people.

This information must be supplied at event registration when attending the Thinkuknow Introduction course. CEOP Ambassadors have the right to refuse entry to any delegate who does not provide the required clearance and identity documents detailed above on the day.
