

Sunday 11th November, 12.30pm, St. George's Church.

Poynton Bell ringers

St. George's Bells will be rung 'half muffled' during the Remembrance Parade from the Civic Hall to the church for the Service of Remembrance. Commencing at 12.30pm, St. George's bells and the bell at St. Martin's will be rung as part of the nationally co-ordinated 'Ringing Remembers' programme. For more information contact David Friend on dwfriend@tiscali.co.uk.

Sunday 11th November, 6.45pm - 7.15pm

'Battles Over', Anson Museum, Anson Road

Organised by the Museum this event is part of the National Commemoration and will be introduced by Poynton's Town Mayor who will read Poynton's Roll of Honour. The Last Post will be played, a beacon lit on the Dirt Ruck and the old colliery bell will be rung in memory of those from Poynton who lost their lives, some of whom were miners. Light refreshments will be available and First World War memorabilia will be on view. For more information contact Peter Wood on 07769 503 999 or p.wood83@ntlworld.com

Sunday 18th November, 4pm, St. Georges Church.

Missa Pro Pace

A performance of a new Requiem for female voices called Missa Pro Pace, which means Mass for Peace. Composed by Catherine Silman and Pamela Jay with members of the choir made up from local groups and Cantata Choirs with guest soloist, Sarah Williamson. Booking essential. Tickets £5 available by contacting Catherine on 01625 269721 or cantata16@gmail.com

Poynton with Worth Town Council

End of First World War Poynton Commemorations 2018

Poynton's programme of events to commemorate the end of the First World War

19th October onwards Royal British Legion Poppy Appeal

Poynton branch will be selling poppies in many local shops and restaurants in support of the Poppy Appeal. Commemorative wreaths are also available from the Steward on 01625 873120.

Thursday 1st - 8th November, Mon-Fri 9am - 4.30pm, Sat 9am - 12.45pm

Poynton Civic Hall Remembering Poynton Soldiers Display

Come and see a display dedicated to Poynton Soldiers who died during the war. A project by Poynton Town Council and Poynton Men In Sheds. Contact Sharon Duke on 01625 872238 or sharon.duke@poyntontowncouncil.gov.uk Research by Cheshire Villages Great War Society.

Thursday 1st November - Saturday 10th November

Poynton in World War 1: The soldiers and the village

Publication available to purchase for £5 from Poynton Local History Society at Poynton Civic Hall reception. For more information contact Susan Knight on s.knight124@btinternet.com or Eileen Shore eileen.shore@greenbee.net Telephone 01625 872068

Thursday 1st - Monday 12th November Poppies around Poynton

Poynton Town Council and volunteers from the Royal British Legion will put up street poppies around Poynton which have been created by Men In Sheds. For more information contact Sharon Duke on 01625 872238 or sharon.duke@poyntontowncouncil.gov.uk

Saturday 3rd November, 7pm, St. George's Church Hall

Twinning Association and Friends of St. George's

Dinner and film "Destruction of a village". The story of our twin town, Haybes, in the First World War and how Poynton came to be twinned with them. Tickets £10 available from St. George's Church office, weekday mornings. 01625 879277.

Saturday 10th November, 7.30pm, Civic Hall, Poynton

Poynton R.B.L. Concert Band and Poynton Male Voice Choir

A concert of music and song (performed by Poynton R.B.L. Concert Band together with Poynton Male Voice Choir) and as a finale, a moving poem 'A Mother's Son' written by Frank Owen and narrated by Glyn Derbyshire. Tickets £10 (no concessions). Booking advised. Email prbl.band@ntlworld.com. All proceeds to the Poppy Appeal.

Sunday 11th November, St. George's Parish Church, Poynton

Remembrance Parade and Service

9.35am - Remembrance Parade from Poynton Civic Hall down Park Lane to St. George's Church. For further details contact Liz Osborn, Poynton Town Clerk, liz.osborn@poyntontowncouncil.gov.uk

10am - Armistice 100 Remembrance Service in St. George's Church (for young people and adults).

10am - All-age Remembrance Service in St. George's Church Hall (for children and families).

11am - Act of Remembrance at the war memorial including, on this 100th anniversary, the singing of 'Abide with me'.

Commemoration displays, We will remember them, St. George's Church

The congregation and wider community have knitted or crocheted poppies to create a display in church. Brownies and Guides have dressed the church windows and church hall. Students from Poynton High School have been involved, with Yr 12's designing/overseeing a project and Yr 8's creating the chosen design in the church hall entrance.

